This Month's Devotion

As members of His body, we are called to "encourage one another and build each other up" (1 Thessalonians 5:11), bearing each other's burdens and rejoicing in each other's victories and thus fostering a community where love, encouragement, and accountability thrive. Let us embrace the richness of fellowship, knowing that in our unity, we reflect the love and grace of our Savior, and through our community, we can impact the world for His glory.

Memorial Day

In honor of Memorial Day, we remember those who paid the ultimate sacrifice for the freedoms we enjoy. The following poem was written by a mother who lost a son during WWII.

No Gold Star

There'll be no gold star in my window
For the dear lad who went away
On a bright summer morning,
With a heart so light and gay.

He answered the call of duty
Giving his life at the very last
That men might live in peace
And freedom from fear be past.

Of course I'll grieve for him;
Keep a place set apart,
But no gold star goes in my window,
For he'll always live in my heart.
