Resource of the Month

In this sermon on Romans 8:26–27, Spurgeon shows us how the Holy Spirit helps us in our prayers. The Holy Spirit inspires prayer in us from our inmost soul. These prayers are sometimes deeper than can be expressed in words. "All the prayers which the Spirit of God inspires in us must succeed, because...there is a meaning in them which God reads and approves." These prayers are according to the will of God and will be answered! Chapel Library has added annotations to this sermon.

This Month's Devotion

Trusting God's plan is central to our faith journey, grounded in the belief that His ways are higher than our ways (Isaiah 55:9). We are encouraged to lean not on our own understanding but to trust in the Lord with all our hearts (Proverbs 3:5–6), confident that He is working all things for the good of those who love Him (Romans 8:28). As we navigate life's uncertainties, let us rest in the assurance that God's plan is perfect, His timing impeccable, and His love for us unchanging, guiding us with His wisdom and grace.
