Resource of the Month

What Is the Great Commission? by R.C. Sproul is a concise and insightful look at Jesus' command to His disciples to make disciples, proclaim the gospel, and carry the message of Christ to the world. It explores the biblical foundation of evangelism and missions while reminding Christians why the Great Commission is central to the life and calling of every believer. Click the image to access the link.

This Month's Devotion

It is easy to become so focused on everything we need to accomplish that we forget who we are ultimately working for. Scripture reminds us, "Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established" (Proverbs 16:3). Whatever this season holds, bring your plans, your work, your family, and even the small, unseen tasks before the Lord, trusting Him with the outcome. "Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men" (Colossians 3:23).

Happy Labor Day

Labor Day is a beautiful reminder to pause and recognize the value of hard work, the people who labor faithfully, and the many ways our work contributes to our families and communities. May we remember that whatever work God has placed before us, we can do it faithfully and ask Him to bless the work of our hands: "Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us" (Psalm 90:17). Wishing you and your family a restful, joyful, and blessed Labor Day!
